Welcome HERE and welcome THERE. Welcome to everywhere!

You are now entering just the part of the world you want to see and know about! That's what we propose to show you.

Whatever request you have from wherever, our agency will have an answer to you regarding that!

What are you looking for?

We will take you THERE and bring it HERE.

Check out who we are and our experience.

The products we are dealing with.

We are a group of young professionals all with experience of working in different countries, markets, cultures. Together or on each own we developed expertise of different markets and products.

We have been specializing in trades like leather goods, textiles/fabrics, wood, and even raw material.

However, our main skill is the adaptability to new environments, so even if we do not have experience in the field that interests you, let us discover it together!

Our service is to let you know the opportunities of different markets, present them to you, and in case of your interest, we will take care of all your orders and/or supplies, in terms of quality, time, sample developing and many other services you need not to worry about.

Put your questions. We'll answer straight away.
